Instructions for Informal Probate Proceedings

Please read all instructions before attempting to complete any paperwork contained in this packet, as you may not need to complete all of these forms in your particular case.

Completed paperwork must be legible and typed or written in ink. The Court is required by law to refuse any paperwork that is not legible.

Fees

- Filing Fee - $175.00
- Certified Copies of Letters of Authority (optional) - $10.00 per certification and $1.00 per page (usually totals $11.00 per certified copy)
- Inventory Fee -- Varies based on the value of the estate. Call the Probate Office at the number above to verify the fee in your case. The inventory fee is due at the time you file to close the case or one year after the appointment of a personal representative, whichever comes first.

Fees cannot be returned if your application is denied.

Forms

Below, you will find specific instructions for each form contained in the packet. In addition to these forms, you must provide:

- A copy of the death certificate
  - If the decedent had a will, the original will (unless it is already filed with the Court)
1. Application for Informal Probate and/or Appointment of Personal Representative (PC 558): This form must be completed for all cases. If you need more room than the form provides, you may attach additional pages with the rest of the information.
  2. Fiduciary Proof of Identity: Complete this form with all requested information. The information required is the proposed personal representative's information. You must attach to the form a clear photo copy of the proposed personal representative's driver's license. Even if the proposed personal representative is eligible for appointment, Letters of Authority will not be issued unless this form is filed with the Court. This document is only used by the Court. It is not made available to the public.
  3. Testimony to Identify Heirs (PC 565): This form must be completed in all cases. Please note that the signature must be notarized. Do not sign this form unless you are in front of a notary public.

4. Supplemental Testimony to Identify Non-Heir Devisees (PC 566): This form is only required if there is a will, and the will identifies a devisee that is not an heir (i.e. the devisee is not identified on the Testimony to Identify Heirs). Please note that the signature must be notarized. Do not sign this form unless you are in front of a notary public.
5. Renunciation of Right to Appointment, Nomination of Personal Representative and Waiver of Notice (PC 567): You only need to complete this form if someone other than the proposed personal representative has a greater or equal right to appointment, and that person is willing to waive his or her right to be appointed personal representative.
6. Notice of Intent to Request Informal Appointment of Personal Representative (PC 557): You only need to complete this form if someone other than the proposed personal representative has a greater or equal right to appointment, and that person is unwilling or unavailable to sign a Renunciation of Right to Appointment (PC 567). If needed, the form must be completed and served on all interested parties.

If the location of all interested parties is known, fourteen days after the completed form has been served on all interested parties, the proposed personal representative may file with the court. Your filing must contain the completed original form as well as a Proof of Service (PC 564) indicating who was served, how they were served, and when they were served.

If the location of all interested parties is not known, you will have to publish this notice in the newspaper. Use the Publication of Notice (PC 563a) for this publication. Your paperwork will need to be filed with the Court before you publish.

7. Register's Statement (PC 568): This form must be completed as much as possible in all cases. Please do not write anything for number 6, and do not sign the form.
8. Acceptance of Appointment (PC 571): This form must be completed in all cases. The form should be completed by the proposed personal representative. It indicates that person's willingness to serve in that capacity.
9. Letters of Authority for Personal Representative (PC 572): The top of this form must be completed in all cases. Do not fill in the date of appointment, expiration date, or sign the form. The second page details the duties of the personal representative. The proposed personal representative should read that page very carefully before agreeing to serve.
10. Notice of Appointment and Duties of Personal Representative (PC 573): This form must be completed in all cases. Do not fill in the date of appointment.

11. Notice to Creditors (PC 574): This form must be completed in all cases where the decedent passed away within the previous three years. (This is almost all cases.) The original must be filed with the Court. You must then publish the notice in the newspaper. Take a copy of the form to the newspaper for that purpose. After it is published, an Affidavit of Publication will need to be filed with the Court. Some newspapers do this for you, and others do not. Ask the newspaper to determine their policy.
12. Notice to Known Creditors (PC 578): This form is used only if the decedent had creditors and you know their identity. In that instance, complete this form once for each creditor that you know of. The original must be filed with the Court. A copy must be sent to the creditor.
13. Proof of Service (PC 564): After all paperwork has been filed with the Court, and if a personal representative is appointed, you are responsible for making copies of all documents filed with the Court (not including the Fiduciary Proof of Identity) and serving them on all of the interested parties.

After serving all of the interested parties, you must indicate on this form who was served, how they were served, and when they were served. The form is then filed with the Court. Failure to file the Proof of Service may result in dismissal of your case or removal of the personal representative.

14. Publication of Notice (PC 563a): This form is only used if there is an interested party whose location is unknown. You will need to publish notice of the appointment of a personal representative in the newspaper. This form is filed with the Court and then taken to the newspaper for publication. After it is published, an Affidavit of Publication will need to be filed with the Court. Some newspapers do this for you, and others do not. Ask the newspaper to determine their policy.

MCR 5.202, MCR 5.206, MCR 5.307, MCR 5.310

The following provisions are mandatory reporting duties specified in Michigan law and Michigan court rules and are not the only duties required of you. See MCL 700.3701 through MCL 700.3722 for other duties. Your failure to comply may result in the court suspending your powers and appointing a special fiduciary in your place. It may also result in your removal as fiduciary.

CONTINUED ADMINISTRATION: If the estate is not settled within 1 year after the first personal representative's appointment, you must file with the court and send to each interested person a notice that the estate remains under administration, specifying the reasons for the continued administration. You must give this notice within 28 days of the first anniversary of the first personal representative's appointment and all subsequent anniversaries during which the administration remains uncompleted. If such a notice is not received, an interested person may petition the court for a hearing on the necessity for continued administration or for closure of the estate. [MCL 700.3703(4), MCL 700.3951(3), MCR 5.144, MCR 5.307, MCR 5.310]

Additional Duties for Supervised Administration

If this is a supervised administration, in addition to the above reporting duties, you are also required to prepare and file with this court the following written reports or information.

INVENTORY: You are required to file with the probate court an inventory of the assets of the estate within 91 days of the date your letters of authority are issued or as ordered by the court. You must send a copy of the inventory to all presumptive distributees and all other interested persons who request it. The inventory must list in reasonable detail all the property owned by the decedent at the time of death. Each listed item must indicate the fair market value at the time of the decedent's death and the type and amount of any encumbrance. Where the decedent's date of death is on or after March 28, 2013, the lien amount will be deducted from the value of the real property for purposes of calculating the inventory fee under MCL 600.871(2). If the value of any item has been obtained through an appraiser, the inventory should include the appraiser's name and address with the item or items appraised by that appraiser. You must also provide the name and address of each financial institution listed on your inventory at the time the inventory is presented to the court. The address for a financial institution shall be either that of the institution's main headquarters or the branch used most frequently by the personal representative. [MCL 700.3706, MCR 5.307, MCR 5.310(E)]

ACCOUNTS: You are required to file with this court once a year, either on the anniversary date that your letters of authority were issued or on another date you choose (you must notify the court of this date) or more often if the court directs, a complete itemized accounting of your administration of the estate. This itemized accounting must show in detail all income and disbursements and the remaining property, together with the form of the property. Subsequent annual and final accountings must be filed within 56 days following the close of the accounting period. When the estate is ready for closing, you are also required to file a final account with a description of property remaining in the estate. All accounts must be served on the required persons at the same time they are filed with the court, along with proof of service.

ESTATE (OR INHERITANCE) TAX INFORMATION: You are required to submit to the court proof that no estate (or inheritance) taxes are due or that the estate (or inheritance) taxes have been paid. Note: The estate may be subject to inheritance tax.
