SUMMER CONCERT SERIES

1400 S. Brown Street, Jackson, MI 49203

All shows are weather permitting and subject to last minute change.

All concerts start at 7 p.m.

Free to the Public

Saturday, June 9

Steve Berkemeier has been performing throughout mid-Michigan for more than 20 years drawing on rock, country and folk music while mixing in strong original selections and personal stories. He takes the audience on a journey through a whole range of emotions that evoke laughter, tears and the satisfaction of reconnecting with an old friend.

Saturday, June 16

The GORDON LIGHTFOOT Tribute captures not only his music but also offers an evening of Canadian folk, country and popular music with songs of the lakes, the woods, lost loves and broken hearts and, of course, "The Wreck of the Edmund Fitzgerald".

Saturday, June 23

Equinox brings Celtic music alive with a driving energy and soulful sound you'll remember for a lifetime. With crisp vocals and a repertoire as diverse as their instrumentation, they will give you Celtic music like you've never experienced before.

Saturday, June 30

The All Directions Band has been a fixture in the southeastern Michigan music community for a number of years. The band has played numerous clubs, music festivals and concerts and has backed up a wide spectrum of talent including Rock and Roll Hall of Fame inductees "Ben E. King and The Drifters", "The Diamonds" and jazz legend Grady Tate.

Saturday, July 7

The Rhythm Ramblers will take you back in time to the golden age of jazz and swing.

Saturday, July 14

Keyboard/vocalist Ray Champion is a one-man-band who features standards, jazz, Latin, country and blues songs of the 50s through the 80s.

July 20-21-22

Hot Air Jubilee weekend – no entertainment planned

Saturday, July 28

Gary Niemenski, singer songwriter, will entertain you with his guitar and keyboard music for all ages.

Saturday, August 4

The Aimcriers, a 4-man band based in Lansing, will offer up their unique Americana, alternative country, and southwest folk rock music.

August 5-11

Jackson County Fair – no entertainment planned

Saturday, August 18

Jump Start featuring Tim Farrell will charm you with their classic rock and ballad tunes.

Saturday, August 25

Capital City Brass Band features everything from traditional British brass band hymns and marches to virtuoso transcriptions of orchestral standards, jazz, show tunes and electrifying solo features. NOTE: Concert starts at 5:00 PM.
